THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

† THE CALL TO WORSHIP

L: How wonderful and pleasant it is when brothers and sisters live together in harmony!

C: For harmony is as precious as the anointing oil

that was poured over Aaron's head,

that ran down his beard

and onto the border of his robe.

L: It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion.

C: For there the LORD bestows his blessing,

even life forevermore.

† THE INVOCATION

Holy God of All, we come now into your presence to worship You and to grow in Your Son Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit unite our hearts and minds in Jesus Christ, that we might worship You as one body even though we are not all gathered in one place. May our words and our thoughts resonate with the harmonies of heaven, making beautiful music in Your ears. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-16 (NRSV)

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift.

The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming. But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

L: The Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.
